FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Child Abuse Prevention Center Endorses Roger Dickinson for State Assembly

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — The Child Abuse Prevention Center today announced its endorsement of Roger Dickinson for State Assembly. Dickinson is running for office in the 9th State Assembly District.

“Roger has been a leader for youth-oriented gang prevention efforts and programs to better the lives of children and families,” said Sheila Boxley, president and chief executive officer of the CAP Center. “The CAP Center is pleased to endorse Roger and look forward to working with him to continue protecting children and building healthy families.”

The CAP Center has a 30-year history of preventing child abuse, neglect and abandonment through three core strategies: Safety, Education and Advocacy. The CAP Center is a state, national, and international service, training, research and resource center dedicated to protecting children and building healthy families.

Located in Sacramento, the CAP Center is home to three unique agencies – the Child Abuse Prevention Council of Sacramento, Lift the Children and Prevent Child Abuse California. A single board of directors governs all three agencies and each agency takes a different but complementary approach to prevent child abuse.

The CAP Center’s mission is to prevent child abuse, neglect and abandonment. Visit and learn more about The CAP Center online at www.thecapcenter.org.
